

We're Hiring!

Gersh, Hartson and Associates, PC is seeking psychologists and therapists to join our well-established group practice serving children, families, and adults in Iowa City and surrounding areas. We offer flexible scheduling (full-time or part-time), telehealth and in-office options, and a referral base that allows you to build your therapy and/or assessment practice quickly and efficiently. Our experienced and skilled support staff will assist you with scheduling, billing, and insurance, and other practice-based issues. Opportunities are available for case consultation and professional support. You may be eligible for benefits, including health and dental insurance, malpractice coverage, income protection, and 401(k). Current or pending Iowa licensure as a Psychologist, Independent Social Worker, Mental Health Counselor, or Marriage and Family Therapist is preferred.
